

Addressing Conflicts of Interest

This presentation was designed to meet the FP Canada's Professional Responsibility requirements

Bob will look at the different conflicts of interest that an advisor can experience. He will look at how to spot them and how to address each situation effectively and professionally.

This presentation also covers creating effective policies for maintaining compliance responsibilities with respect to conflicts of interest.